

Procession of Little Angels

Procession of Little Angels

Learn more about Tucson All Souls Procession at:

www.allsoulsprocession.org

Digital Compilation ©2012 Nadia Hagen & Jacob Devaney Art, Characters, & Illustrations ©2012 Nadia Hagen
All Rights Reserved

No part of this book may be reproduced in any form without written permission from Copyright holder.

ISBN 978-1-4675-3494-9

Written & Illustrated by Nadia Hagen Developed and Designed by Nadia Hagen & Jacob Devaney Photo Credits:
Tucson Stories That Soar
Tucson All Souls Procession
Randy Ashley
Susan Tiss
Tess Léontine

Once a year,
we gather
at the park and
we say “Goodbye”
and “Hello”
to our friends
and
relations
who have died.

We remember
our brothers,
our sisters,
our mothers
and fathers,
our aunts, uncles,
grandparents,
friends,
our dogs, cats
and goldfishes.

We
build
altars.

We
decorate
wings.

We
paint
Sugar
Skulls.

We
make lanterns.

We
listen
to Poems
and
act out
Stories.

We Dance,
Some of us
dance
on stilts.

We
decorate our
faces so we can play
different
characters.

When
the sun sets,
we have
a Procession
all around
the park.

There are lights
in the trees.

We blow whistles
and
bang drums.

We know our loved ones are
still with us
and we feel sad
and happy
all at the same time.

